ORDER VACATING CIVIL PENALTIES

This matter came on to be heard by the Tennessee Ethics Commission ("Commission") on August 26, 2008, at its regularly scheduled meeting, upon the written submission made on behalf of respondent, which the Commission construes as a Request for Reconsideration of the Commission's prior Order assessing civil penalties for Respondent's failure to timely file a Statement of Disclosure of Interest pursuant to Tenn. Code Ann. § 8-50-101 et seq., and upon the record.

The Commission concludes, after due deliberation, that the record supports the Respondent's Request for Reconsideration, and the request is accordingly granted.

It is THEREFORE ORDERED that the conditional penalty order issued on June 16, 2008 be and hereby is VACATED.

It is FURTHER ORDERED that this administrative proceeding against respondent is DISMISSED.

SO ORDERED.
